Eufemio Fernandez, now Chief of the Cuban Secret Police, reportedly is planning a trip to Costa Rica in relation to his participation in the activities of the Caribbean Legion. Fernandez is to travel to Costa Rica in order to discuss the plan of attack which allegedly is to restore to office the presidents of Latin American republics who recently have been deprived of their positions. It is believed that Fernandez will leave his post as Chief of the Cuban Secret Police for several months to take an active part in the movement. (Comment. 25X1A6a During Fernandez's absence from Cuba, Erundino Vilela, Assistant Chief of the Secret Police, will act in his place.)
